Study Guide—Part V

1. How do values differ from interests? Give an example from your personal life.

2. Which values were at stake in World War II for the United States? How did those values influence American attitudes toward the war effort?

3. Why did the values at stake in the Vietnam War "not ring as clearly," compared to World War II, for many Americans?

4. Why was the U.S. decision to withdraw from Vietnam especially painful and difficult? How did the issue of values complicate the process?

5. Why has the Vietnam War divided American society like few other conflicts?
