

Name: _____

Map 1: Political Geography 1918-1940

Name: _____

Instructions: Follow the directions below and fill in the maps “Political Geography 1918-1940” and “Europe 1918-1940.” Use the maps in the background reading and any other resources you may have available in your classroom. You may want to use the internet, maps on the wall, or other textbooks. You may want to use different colored pencils.

1. Mark and label the countries that were allies of the United States during World War I. (Map 1)
2. Draw the approximate borders of France. Identify and mark the location of where nations negotiated the Treaty of Versailles. (Map 2)
3. Identify and label the countries with fascist governments. (Map 1)
4. Identify and label the country with a socialist government. (Map 1)
5. Draw a line between Italy and the country in Africa it invaded in 1936. Roughly sketch the boundaries of that country. (Map 1)
6. Identify the major oceans. (Map 1)
7. Draw the approximate borders of the United States. (Map 1)
8. Circle and label Hawaii. (Map 1)
9. Circle and label French Indochina, the Netherlands East Indies, and the Philippines. (Map 1)
10. Draw the borders of Germany. Identify as many countries that border Germany as you can. (Map 2)
11. Circle and label Japan. (Map 1)
12. Draw the border of China. Identify and label Manchuria and Nanking. (Map 1)
13. Mark the boundaries of the peak of Nazi expansion and Japanese expansion. (You will need to consult another source.) (Map 1 and Map 2)
14. Draw lines that mark the route of a ship traveling from ports on the East Coast of the United States to Britain. (Map 1)
15. After Lend-Lease passed and Hitler attacked the Soviet Union, there were numerous convoys of supplies sent to the Soviet Union. Mark and label the city of Murmansk in the Soviet Union. Draw a line that would mark the route of a ship traveling between Murmansk and the East Coast of the United States. (Map 1)

Map 2: Europe 1918-1940

